LEM ALLEN BEATEN

Defeated for Speaker of the Assembly by Griffin of Nye—Lincoln County Gets a Few Minor Offices—Governor's Message Read Tuesday—Election of United States Senator Will Result in Return of Newlands.

The Nevada legislature is in session at Carson City. It convened last Monday when Governor Dickerson presided temporarily in the senate and Secretary of State Douglas in the assembly. A permanent organization was effected promptly with George D. Pyne of Esmeralda county for president pro tem for the senate and James M. Griffin of Nye county as speaker of the assembly. Pyne was the unanimous choice of the democrats of the upper house to preside over that body; but Lem Allen of Churchill had some supporters in the democratic caucus against Griffin for speaker; the latter receiving 22 votes, against 10 for Allen. Walter L. Grimes of Tonopah won the chief clerkship of the senate and Harry J. Coogan of Goldfield, the corresponding position in the assembly.

The other officers of the senate are: Secretary, W. L. Grimes, of Nye; assistant secretary, Robert Bunker of Lincoln; sergeant at arms, Frank Root, White Pine; assistant sergeant at arms, John Robb, Washoe; minute clerk, B. D. Bennett of Nye; assistant, Miss M. Mahoney, Storey; journal clerk, Miss F. Rogers, Elko; assistant, Miss Mabel Steart, Humboldt; engrossing clerk, Miss Margaret Day, Churchill; assistant, E. L. Wightman, Humboldt; enrolling clerk, Miss C. Roberts, Ormsby; assistant, Miss Alice Langwith, Humboldt; copying clerk, Miss H. Clark; committee clerks, James Ritchie, Humboldt; Miss Rodgers, Elko; Miss H. Hatton, Storey; George W. Keith, Elko; messenger, Henry Bray, Washoe; pages, H. Frank Crowe, Ormsby; Frank Raycraft, Ormsby; porter, Clarence Sadler, Ormsby.

The officers and clerks of the assembly are: Speaker pro tem, Leslie Smail, Ormsby; chief clerk, Harry Coogan, Esmeralda; assistant chief clerk, Frank L. Riber, Elko; sergeant at arms, Ed Ryan, Esmeralda; assistant sergeant at arms, F. Sawyer, Washoe; minutes clerk, Inman, Ormsby; assistant clerk, McNicholas, White Pine; journal clerk, Miss H. McMullen, Elko; assistant journal clerk, Miss Sullivan, Storey; enrolling clerk, Miss Brown, Humboldt; enrolling clerk, Miss J. Mapes, Churchill; engrossing clerk, Mrs. Deveny, Storey; assistant engrossing clerk, F. S. McCafferty, Humboldt; copying clerk, Miss McNamara, Nye; assistant copying clerk, M. F. Jordon, Washoe; committee clerks Miss Jacks, Elko; C. C. Corkhill, Lincoln; Miss Smithlin, Lander; pages, E. Hunter, Esmeralda; W. H. Carter, Ormsby; porter, M. Farrell, Ormsby; assistant porter, N. Harriess, Lincoln; messenger, A. W. Smith, Nye; copying clerk, Miss McCarthy, Elko; committee clerk, Ridal Merrick, Douglas; assistant enrolling clerk, Cornella, Lyon.

The message of Governor Dickerson was read Tuesday. There has been some talk of springing a dark horse to defeat the reelection of Newlands to the United States senate, but it is not taken seriously, as it was the will of a majority of the voters at the last general election that he be returned to Washington.
